

The Real Estate Transaction in 181 Steps What Your REALTOR® Does for You

Surveys show that many homeowners and homebuyers are not aware of the true value a REALTOR® provides during the course of a real estate transaction.

The list here is just a baseline since the services may vary within each brokerage and each market. Many REALTORS® routinely provide a wide variety of additional services that are as varied as the nature of each transaction.

By the same token, some transactions may not require some of these steps to be equally successful. However, most would agree that given the unexpected complications that can arise, it's far better to know about a step and make an intelligent, informed decision to skip it, than to not know the possibility even existed.

The Critical Role of the REALTOR® – 181 Steps

Listed here are 181 typical actions, research steps, procedures, processes and review stages in a successful residential real estate transaction that are normally provided by full service real estate brokerages in return for their sales commission. Depending on the transaction, some may take minutes, hours, or even days to complete, while some may not be needed. They are divided into the following categories:

Pre-Listing Activities
Listing Appointment Presentation
Once Property is Under Listing Agreement
Entering Property in Multiple Listing Service Database
Marketing The Listing
The Offer and Contract
Home Inspection
The Appraisal
Closing Preparations and Duties

More importantly, they reflect the level of skill, knowledge and attention to detail required in today's real estate transaction, underscoring the importance of having help and guidance from someone who fully understands the process – a REALTOR®.
