Description: Located on New London's most desirable street, directly across the street from your private beach association the views of the water and lighthouse are outstanding. Walk along the water on the neighborhood sidewalks then return to this meticulously maintained 4 bedroom 3.1 bath home. The bathrooms and kitchen have been remodeled, hardwood flooring added along with custom moldings and trim work. All the bedrooms feature builtin dressers and commodious closets. Unusual for this architecture is a large walk-up attic. In addition to a living room this home also has a den and a family room as well as an office. Even though there is central A/C the cool ocean breezes and breaking waves will lull you to sleep. As an added bonus the property has an inground heated pool that is quite private.
